

Bio for:
Judge Jacques L. Blanchette
Tyler County Judge

Jacques L. Blanchette is a 1974 graduate of Colmesneil High School, and continued his education at Kilgore College, Texas Tech University and Commonwealth Institute of Funeral Services. He has been active in Tyler County since moving back in 1991 where he was affiliated with Stringer & Griffin Funeral Home before beginning his first term as County Judge in January 2007, and is now serving his second term. He is a member of the Leadership Southeast Texas 2008 class. He has served in various positions in his church, civic organizations and youth groups including the founding of Boy Scout Troop #150. He and his wife (Leeza) of 34 years have three children and one granddaughter.